From Saturday February 16. to Tuesday February 19. 1739.

Petersbourg, January 22.

THIS Court is in daily Expectation of the Ratification of the Peace from Conſtantinople. Choczim is delivered up to the Turks. Neither of the Felt-Marſhals Munich or Lacy, are as yet arrived at this Place.

Stockholm, Jan. 29. The Intenſeneſs of the Cold in theſe Parts has froze the Seas between Zealand and Schonen, ſo that the heavieſt Carriages may paſs over the Ice between Copenhagen and Malmuyer. The King and Senate have not yet determined whether there ſhall be a Diet or not this Spring.

Copenhagen, Feb. 13. Count Reuſs Brother-in-Law to Count Lynar, M. Oſten Bailiff of Sora, and Major-General Rappe who reſides in Norway, have received the Honour of the White Ribbon. It is ſaid Count Lynar will be recalled from Stockholm, and is expected here about Eaſter, and that he is to change Stations with M. Bernſdorff at Ratisbon. Count Lewenohren has been dangerouſly ill for ſome Time; but his Fever having now left him, there is a Likelihood of his doing well.

St. James's, February 18.

This Day Don Joſeph Como, charg'd with the Affairs of the King of the Two Sicilies, had a private Audience of his Royal Highneſs the Duke, ; to which he was introduced by Sir Clement Cottrell, Knight, Maſter of the Ceremonies.

He had afterwards a private Audience of their Royal Highneſſes the Princeſſes Amelia, Mary and Louiſa; being introduced by the Maſter of the Ceremonies.

Whitehall, February 9, 1739-40.
